1. Job title and duties

Customer Support Advisor, reporting to the Customer Support Lead (Megan Tulloch).
You will answer customer enquiries by phone, email and live chat, process returns and warranty claims, and keep help-centre articles up to date.

2. Start date

Your employment starts on 3 November 2025. No previous employment counts towards your period of continuous employment.

3. Probation

3 months. During probation either side may end employment with one week's notice.

4. Place of work

14 Quayside Lane, Bristol. After probation you may work from home up to 2 days a week under the Hybrid Working Policy.

5. Hours

37.5 hours a week, Monday to Friday, on a rota between 08:00 and 18:00.
Occasional Saturday cover (09:00-13:00) in peak season, paid at time and a half.

6. Pay

25,400 GBP a year, paid monthly in arrears on the last working day of the month by credit transfer. Salaries are reviewed each July.

7. Holiday

25 days a year plus UK bank holidays. The holiday year runs January to December.
3 days must be kept for the Christmas shutdown.

8. Sickness

Statutory Sick Pay applies. After probation, company sick pay is full pay for up to 10 days in any rolling 12 months.

9. Pension

Auto-enrolment in the company scheme: employer 5%, employee 3% of qualifying earnings.

10. Notice

After probation: one month from either side, rising to one week per complete year of service after 4 years (maximum 12 weeks).

11. Confidentiality and data protection

You must keep customer and company information confidential during and after your employment, and follow the Data Retention Policy and the IT Security Policy.

12. Disciplinary and grievance

See the Employee Handbook, sections 9 and 10. These procedures are not contractual.
